November 2014

Dear Friends

People say it to me all the time, usually as I'm about to leave: 'take care!' It's a bit like the American 'have a nice day', harmless enough but utterly pointless. Do they think I'm about to rush out into the road and spring across it in front of an approaching bus? Or do they, more realistically, look at me and think 'poor old boy, any minute now he'll walk into a lamp-post'? Either way, the implication is, I suppose, that I should eschew risk and always take the safe option (probably not bad advice, in my case).

Perhaps 'take care' is symptomatic of a society which seems to live in fear of its own shadow. 'Health and Safety', so utterly sensible in its purpose, so often petty and nit-picking in its application, is an example of it. A churchwarden friend told me of a health and safety officer who condemned the pulpit steps in his church. They had no hand rail and were demonstrably a safety hazard. My friend pointed out that they'd been there for five hundred years and there wasn't a single recorded instance of anyone falling down them.

Children are prevented, sometimes even by their own parents, from playing 'dangerous' games like hop-scotch, rugby or hockey. Climbing trees is definitely to be avoided. 'Take care!' has become our watchword. Funnily enough, my generation climbed trees, played hop-scotch, jumped off walls, took appalling risks damming up streams and insisted on hurling or hitting hard cricket and hockey balls at each other. Yes, there were the odd broken bones and bruises, and probably we did at times take stupid risks - only cats have nine lives.

But the unavoidable truth is that life is a risky business, and no amount of taking care can alter that. I wonder if the eighteen residents of Jerusalem in the time of Jesus who were killed when the Tower of Siloam collapsed on them had been told to take care as they set off that morning? And what difference would it have made if they had?

We live in a risky universe. That's how it comes to us from our Creator. Of course we shouldn't take unnecessary risks, or endanger our own or other people's lives needlessly, but live faithfully, sensibly and adventurously in the beautiful, if risky world God has given us.

With every blessing

Robert

HOUSE VALLEY DEANERY GROUP – MOTHER’S UNION MEETINGS

The next meeting is a talk by Ellie Perkins, entitled “An Angel is Not Just For Christmas”. This will be at 2.30pm on Thursday 13th November in St Peter’s Room at Sharnbrook Church.

A warm welcome is extended to members and non- members. For further details please contact Caroline Evens at the Rectory, or on 782000.

REMEMBRANCE SERVICE

The Remembrance Service will take place on Sunday 9th November and we will meet at the Memorial at 10.55am. The service will commence promptly at that time with the laying of the wreath and crosses, followed by the two-minute silence at 11.00am.

Afterwards the congregation is invited to proceed down Memorial Lane to the church where the Remembrance Sunday service will continue. Coffee and biscuits will be served in church after the service.

This is our opportunity to remember and pay tribute to the men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice, not only those from our two villages but any relatives who fought in the two world wars and perhaps in other conflicts around the world, in which all branches of our armed services and merchant navy took part.

W.I.

May Mills

Greta Palmer arrived to talk about how to 'dress to impress', not for W.I. ladies, but elephants! As part of a City and Guilds creative studies course she decided to embroider a decorative cover worn by Indian elephants, to accompany a long essay on the subject. When research in this country drew a blank she travelled to India where she was shown how to buy and make friends with elephants, and how to dress and paint them – yes the elephants are painted! She brought along an exquisitely embroidered head covering (seeri) and a back cover (jhool) and her slides brought her words to life. The custom now is mainly carried out at weddings and on a much smaller scale than in the days of the Raj. Greta was amusing, informative and different, and judging by her book, which she donated to the raffle, she only scratched the surface of an elephant's impressive dress!

CRIB & CHRISTINGLE SERVICE IN DECEMBER Lorraine Shrimpton
WANTED: A leader to get a group together to make the Christingles for this year's Crib and Cristingle Service on Christmas Eve.

Come on, young mums, perhaps one of you would take this on by getting together with friends and other mums over coffee, and have a good natter whilst making the Christingles. The materials required are an orange, a white candle, red tape or ribbon round the middle and four cocktail sticks with sweeties stuck on them – repeated approximately 70 times! The Crib and Christingle Service takes place on Christmas Eve.

If you can help please contact Ken Shrimpton on 781381 or Jane Wells on 782462. They look forward to hearing from you. All expenses incurred from the purchase of oranges and materials, will be reimbursed.

REVD. THOMAS WILLIAM SANDER

Ken Shrimpton

On Sunday 19th October we said goodbye to Revd. Tom Sander. Tom has been our Assistant Curate for the past 3 years under the mentorship of Revd. Robert Evens. Due to the generosity of parishioners we were able to present Tom with a leaving gift of a cheque for £600, which will be extremely useful when it comes to furnishing his new vicarage home.

During his time with us Tom became well known within the Parish, whether through his links with Pinchmill School, his enthusiasm for bell ringing, taking his ministry into the Sun pub, his ability to connect to the wider community through making sick and hospital visits, or preparing people for baptism or marriage. Tom quickly became a valuable member of our community and will be missed. We wish him every success in his new appointment as vicar of Flammstead and Markyate Street.

Clocks Go Back - Burglaries Go Up

Bedfordshire Police are warning residents across the county to be on their guard after the clocks go back this weekend providing easy pickings for burglars.

Traditionally the number of break-ins go up by as much as half when it starts getting darker earlier, so this year, as well as special operations to target burglars, the force is giving local people guidance on how to protect their homes against this seasonal increase in burglaries.

Simple crime prevention precautions really can make all the difference. Thieves are essentially lazy and if they have to make a lot of noise, spend a lot of time, or risk being seen, they are unlikely to bother to attempt a break-in. Taking a few precautions now, and purchasing a few simple security devices to make your home more secure, is a small price to pay for peace of mind.

Make sure you do the following things to make your home more secure and help Bedfordshire Police reduce the number of burglaries this winter.

- Leave lights or the radio on so it looks and sounds like someone is at home.
- Lock all windows - thieves can wriggle through any gap larger than a human head.
- Fit locks to the top and bottom of patio doors.
- Visible burglar alarms make burglars think twice.
- Never leave garages or sheds unlocked.
- Check for weak spots and sagging fences on your boundary.
- Stop a thief getting into the back of the house where he can work unseen by fitting a strong, high gate across a side passage.
- Be alert to strangers loitering in the street. If you don't recognise them or they are acting suspiciously, call the police.
- Don't hide keys under the mat or in a flowerpot - it is the first place a burglar will look.

A Poppy for your WW1 Serviceman

Jane Templeman

If you would like to remember an ancestor or loved one who served in the First World War, please do come to the coffee morning on 1st November and write his or her name on a poppy, while you're there. The person you are commemorating can be from anywhere in the world, and can have served in any capacity – any branch of the Armed Forces, VAD medical staff, land-girls etc., in fact anyone who served or contributed, including those who made the supreme sacrifice. Or you might want to remember a particular regiment or a 'pals battalion' or a ship's company. There are no limit on the poppies you can give.

And do you have copies of photographs, diaries, medals or other 'memorabilia' ? If so, please do bring them for use in our Remembrance Day commemoration.

We will be at the Coffee Morning - Linda and Tim Hoyle, Rose Cottage – from 10:30 on 1st November with poppies for you to write on (as many as you like) and a file to collect memorabilia.

We will also be across the road in St Mary's from 2-5pm with poppies and pens at the ready, if that would be more convenient. Or you could come to St Mary's on the following Saturday 8th from 11am – 4.00 pm.

We hope to have dozens (even hundreds) of named poppies to add to our commemorative display.

Please bring or buy a poppy, write - and remember! They deserve no less in this WW1 Centenary year

NORTH BEDFORD POLICING

Dave Girling

The Villages North of Bedford are policed by 4 PCSO's based at Riseley police station.

Each PCSO covers the general area but in addition has a specific number of villages within the area allocated to them as their responsibility.

There have been some recent changes that are relevant to our villages of Felmersham and Radwell.

Chris Warmington who has been our PCSO for some time has recently successfully become a full time police officer based away from Riseley. His replacement is PCSO Daniel James, who will now cover our villages.

PCSO John Sharratt has moved to Bedford and his replacement is PCSO Josephine (Josie) Weston. PCSO's James Loi and Paul Jones continue at Riseley.

I am sure we wish them all well
